Throughout her internship, Zara demonstrated exceptional analytical and organizational skills, coupled with a remarkable ability to bridge theoretical knowledge and practical applications. From the moment Zara joined us, she brought boundless enthusiasm, an exceptional work ethic, and a natural curiosity that set her apart. Her eagerness to learn and ability to immerse herself in a completely new field was truly remarkable, and her contributions exceeded expectations despite her short time with us. Despite having no prior experience in waste management, Zara quickly grasped the complexities of the informal recycling sector and provided valuable insights that could help Averda strengthen its supply chain while fostering community development.

It was a pleasure having Zara as part of our team. Her dedication, intellectual curiosity, and commitment to driving positive environmental and social change were truly commendable. We have no doubt that she will excel in her future academic and professional endeavors and continue to make significant contributions to sustainability, innovation, and social equity on a global scale.
